DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY Judge Advocate Recruiting Office Suite 5200 1777 N. Kent St.

Rosslyn, Virginia 22209-2194

Application Overview

The Judge Advocate General (TJAG) appoints officers in the United States Army Reserve and Army National Guard based on the recommendations of the Reserve Component Judge Advocate Accessions and Qualifications Board. The accessions board is conducted throughout the year under the supervision of JARO.

Basic Criteria.

Graduate of an ABA accredited Law School
United States Citizen
Medically qualified
Eligible for a US Government Security Clearance
Admitted to Practice (Third-Year Law Student may apply)
Meets Army Height and Weight requirements
Not older than Age 32 (waivable)

Application Deadline. Applications for the United States Army Reserve (USAR) and Army National Guard (ARNG) are accepted throughout the year. Your application will be considered by the Reserve Component Judge Advocate Accessions Board. The board is generally conducted every other month (February, April, June, August, October, December,) on the last Thursday of the month but the board schedule may vary at the discretion of JARO. A final decision on all applications is made by The Judge Advocate General. Applicants will be notified by JARO regarding acceptance or rejection of their application.

Note for National Guard Applicants. ARNG applications must be submitted through the State Guard Officer Accessions Manager and the National Guard Bureau to JARO for consideration by the Reserve Component Judge Advocate Accessions Board. ARNG applicants are welcome to contact JARO directly with any questions regarding the application process or status (866) ARMY-JAG.
